Vilem cycling for Christian Aid

21-25 July 2010

Vilem is going to represent Bloomsbury on this year's Christian Aid London to Paris Bike Ride. In order to participate in this challenging experience he has pledged to raise a minimum of £1100 sponsorship. Thanks to many generous sponsors from our community he's managed to raise £600 so far. We're now looking to cover the remaining gap. The purpose of the event is to make a difference to the lives of poor communities around the world. If you would like to give your support, please speak to Vilem or find the signature sheets on the reception desk in the foyer to make your pledge.

Magazine deadline

All material for the Bloomsbury magazine is due to be with Margaret Bevis today.

Can you help?

One of our members currently in Canada, Justin Hatt, is coming back to London, but he arrives here June 22, and can't move into his accommodation until July 2nd. He wonders if anybody could put him up for this period of time. If you can help, please speak to Ruth Gouldbourne.

Disability Sunday

Sunday 6th June has been designated "Disability Sunday". Central/Eastern home group will be leading our evening service and they will explore this theme. Come along and bring your friends.

Organ concert

Saturday 29 May, 4pm

Stephen Farr, Director of Music at St Paul's Knightsbridge and Worcester College, Oxford playing works by Bach, Mendelssohn, Ad Wammes & Grainger. Refreshments afterwards. All welcome.

Exhibition

Tuesday 8 June 2010

Come and join us for Maps exhibition at British Library. Meet at statue in British Library Courtyard at 6.30pm. Everybody welcome.

RNIB Box

We have set up a box in the foyer to collect used stamps for the next couple of months. They will then be donated to Royal National Institute for the Blind. We would like to ask those who can to donate their contributions. This is partly in recognition of Naivo's work in Madagascar, and partly to raise awareness of recycling as a response to global problems.

Printed on recycled paper.

If not taken away this notice sheet will be recycled after use.
