Vilem cycling for Christian Aid

21-25 July 2010

Vilem is going to represent Bloomsbury on this year's Christian Aid London to Paris Bike Ride. In order to participate in this challenging experience he has to pay a registration fee of £99 and pledge to raise a minimum of £1100 sponsorship, of which £500 has already been promised. The purpose of the event is to make a difference to the lives of poor communities around the world. If you would like to give your support, please speak to Vilem or find the signature sheets on the reception desk in the foyer to make your pledge.

Money raised at last Saturday's Organ concert

Stephen Hicks gave a wonderful organ concert last Saturday. We highlighted Fairtrade Fortnight at the concert with refreshments using fairly traded ingredients and raised £300 for the Haiti Earthquake Appeal.

RNIB Box

We have set up a box in the foyer to collect used stamps for the next couple of months. They will then be donated to Royal National Institute for the Blind. We would like to ask those who can to donate their contributions. This is partly in recognition of Naivo's work in Madagascar, and partly to raise awareness of recycling as a response to global problems.

Printed on recycled paper.

If not taken away this notice sheet will be recycled after use.
